

CAREERS NOTICES

Year 13

- The British Psychological Society are offering 'A Flavour of Psychology' day at the Whitla Hall, QUB on Wednesday 29 February from 9.30am – 3.30pm. This may be of interest to those considering applying for a Psychology degree. Admission is free but you must book a place before 26 February – https://web.questback.com/britishpsychologicalsociety/bpsni_event29feb12/. See Mrs Coetzee for further details and conference abstracts.
- The University of Cambridge are running a Psychology AS-Level Essay Competition in which students are invited to answer one of two questions on either social or developmental Psychology. There are prizes for the top three submissions. The deadline for entries is June 30th 2012 and further details are available from Mrs Coetzee.

The University of Cambridge is also offering a new Tripos on Psychological and Behavioural Sciences, open to applicants for 2013 entry and the course is accredited by the British Psychological Society, so students who graduate from the course (with at least a second class honours) will achieve 'graduate recognition' needed to pursue a career in psychology. For further information, see Mrs Coetzee.
- The University of Ulster have launched their new Undergraduate Study website which can be found at <http://undergraduate.ulster.ac.uk> and via the homepage www.ulster.ac.uk using the 'Study at Ulster' Quick Link – Undergraduate Study. This includes sections on:
